

XM Radio is installed in my car and I depend on it for my local news and weather as well as the music I want to hear. It would be disasterous if the National Association of Broadcasters prevailed and XM Radio or Sirius Radio could not broadcast news, music and information to meet their listeners needs. The quality service provided by Satellite radio have changed my listening habits for the better.
Thank you for your time.

Delbert McClinton